

I am puzzled. And, this is not an insignificant bewilderment. That is not always the case, because many things puzzle me, but they have no real relevance to my life or the lives of others around me. For example, I have never understood why someone would paint their fingernails or spend money on fake, decorated nails. It is hard enough to keep my real fingernails cleaned and trimmed. I don't get the obsession with shopping, either, that seems to afflict a lot of people. And I can't understand why so many people dislike parsnips. But, none of these issues has any importance in my life. They are just things I wonder about.

But, I do have a question for anyone who reads these weekly chronicles. If you were, or are going to be a Trump voter, could you tell me what reason you have for this action? I am truly curious, because I cannot find a single reason that any normal person could even contemplate voting for this person. I really wish some of you could tell me. Please get in touch and enlighten me. Contact me via email at info@coecreek.com

I will reply.
